Girl Scouts

Council Adopts Constitution, Aug. 1

Constitution and by-laws for the newly organized Daly City-Colma Council of Girl Scouts were adopted, unanimously at the monthly meeting of the group held, Tuesday evening, August 1, at the home of Mrs. Janet Delucchi, 241 Oliver street. Commissioner Mrs. Stella Jensen presided.

Motion to adopt the carefully prepared constitution, as presented and corrected by the committee appointed at the July meeting under the chairmanship of Deputy Commissioner Mrs. Allene Lehigh, was made by Mrs. Elsie Hesselein and seconded by Mrs. Hilda Heagney.

One of the major objectives of the new council, whose jurisdiction comprises Daly City, Colma incorporated, and Colma unincorporated, will be to bring Girl Scouting to many more of the 1,320 girls between 7 and 18 estimated to be in the community. At present there are only seven troops but more will be organized. Of immediate concern is the formation of a group for senior girls. It is hoped to have such a group for high school age girls under way by the opening of the fall term.

The council decided at Tuesday night's meeting that the regular monthly session of the group will be held the first Tuesday, rather than the first Monday as originally announced.

Formation of a new Brownie troop in the south end of the community was described by Mrs. Ruth Rowley, leader. The group meets every Monday, 1:30 p. m. at Colma Community Center building, Dunks street.

Mrs. Clara Lane, finance officer for the council, revealed that

Residents Buy $194,137 In Bonds

Daly City ended its Fifth War Loan drive with sales totaling $194,137.50. Of this figure, well in excess of the community's $175,000 quota, $88,086.50 was in E bonds, according to Walter J. Lehigh, war finance chairman and head of the campaign.

Although the drive was concluded, Monday, July 31, Lehigh urged local residents to continue buying War Bonds to the limit of their ability until the war is won. He thanked committee workers, the Girl Scouts and other organizations which operated the War Bond booth at the Daly City theatre, the purchasers, and the Golden State Dairy drivers for outstanding cooperation.

In the final week at the bond booth the Girl Scout organization had the following girls helping: Beth Ann Calvin, Theresa Mabon, Patricia Del Degan, Helen Smith, Rose Heffron, Jerrie-Lou Haley, Gloria Lund, Roberta Wordley, Girl Scout Troop No. 1; Joan Hopman, Girl Scout Troop No. 4; Bettie Duffy, Shirley Van Vliet, Ferol Walrod, Beverly Gelinias, Jacqueline Berardy, Girl Scout Troop No. 2; Barbara Hesselein, Donna Kollmann, Joan Beecher, Nancy Findlay, Joanne Van Vliet, Brownie Troop No. 8; Adele Hanson, Brownie Troop No. 7; Barbara Jones, Brownie Troop No. 9.

Mothers and troop committee-women who helped were Mrs. Julia Petersen, Mrs. Muriel Pabst, Mrs. J. S. Calvin, Mrs. Cecelia Hale, Mrs. Ada Schultheis, Mrs. Hilda Heagney, Mrs. Gelinias, Mrs. Getha Mejia, Mrs. Catherine Duffy, and Mrs. Florence Hopman.

The Girl Scouts liked the project so much that they will continue in their role of "saleswomen for Uncle Sam" by selling War Savings Stamps every Saturday at Warshawski's Dry Goods store, 6340 Mission street. Local residents are asked by the girls to do their stamp-buying from their table on Saturdays.

Just In Case You Might Have Wondered

When does school start? This frequent query from Daly City small fry and their parents, has for an answer—Monday, September 11, whether it's one of the elementary schools of the Jefferson district, Our Lady of Perpetual Help parochial school, or Jefferson Union high school. All local schools will resume class work on that date.

At the high school, janitors have been busy cleaning and repainting, and necessary renovation is under way at all the local school buildings.

Tonight, August 3, public hearings on the proposed budgets for 1944-45 are taking place at the Jefferson Elementary district administration building, 344 Santa Barbara avenue, and at the high school, 6996 Mission street. The trustees were to be on hand to explain the items of the budgets and had issued a special invitation for interested parents to be present.

Point Value Charts Will Arrive Later

The July ration point value charts for meat-fats and for processed foods will remain in use at least until August 13, according to Miss Genevieve Blue, chief clerk at OPA Board No. 83-12-3, 470 Grand avenue, South San Francisco. She advised retailers and the public that the point charts were delayed.

The August schedule, although substantially the same as July, does have a few changes which may be checked with the local board. Corn is back on rationing and what value pork would have in ration points had not been decided, early this week, by the OPA. The 16 point value per pound for butter established, July 23, continues in effect.

Miss Blue said rumors that coffee would return to the list of rationed goods seemed unfounded. After checking with both regional and district headquarters she found that their stand was that coffee would NOT be rationed again... anyhow, not now.

The price panel of the local board, under the chairmanship of C. S. Barnes, continues a vigorous schedule of service and watchfulness. Each month it conducts two surveys of retail outlets in the district. Price secretary is Miss Betty Franklin.

For those who are selling or plan to sell their cars to dealers Miss Blue issued a reminder that in order for the car owner to let the dealer act as his agent in turning in gasoline coupons both must sign a certification. Full details should be secured directly from the board.

Send 41 To Take Physical Exams

Forty-one men were sent to take pre-induction physical examinations at San Francisco, Saturday, July 29, by Daly City Draft Board No. 103, according to Mrs. Isabelle Flynn, chief clerk. Acceptance reports were not available, early this week, nor were the names of the men inducted for service with the armed forces, July 28.

This month, there will be pre-induction physicals for 54 men from the local board, August 22, and induction of 42 men, August 31.

The local board, like those throughout the nation, is already rearing its program to act as a clearing house of information for men released from the armed forces. Mrs. Flynn and her assistants, Miss Lorraine Lavagnino and Miss Elsie Olcese, recently attended district conferences which gave detailed information on the veterans' assistance program in respect to Selective Service participation.

NEWS OF OUR MEN...WOMEN IN UNIFORM

Flak-riddled Turret

Staff Sergeant Fred G. Hanel, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Hanel sr., 223 Miriam street, Daly City, is one of the trio above (right) looking over a B-24 Liberator which came back to a Fifteenth AAF base in Italy with its nose turret flak-riddled. With him in the photo are Corporal Griffen, Brookline, Massachusetts, and Technical Sergeant Thomas B. Kyle, Los Angeles.

The boys are power turret and gun sight specialists, whose job it is to repair the heavy bombers so they can safely carry another lethal load of bombs against vital German oil centers, railways and factories.

Bandmaster Gives Report on Members

Bandmaster George Brenner reports that there are now more than fifty members of the Daly City band in the armed forces. He receives letters from the boys who are now, geographically, "all over the world" and all of them are anxious to get back to resume their membership in the musical organization.

Bandmaster Brenner says that in spite of the serious shortage of players occasioned by war time conditions the band is still organized. It meets every Tuesday night at Company No. 5 firehouse, Oliver and Bellevue. When the boys get back the membership should exceed sixty pieces, Brenner said, and it is the group's goal to have one of the finest bands in the state. A number of younger musicians have joined to take the place of the absent boys.

The band's own "roll of honor" of those in service includes:

Trumpets—Al Winter, Gonzales Vilies (wounded in action in Italy), Spencer Almond, Fred Waterman, George Monti, Buddy Fernbach, Thomas Beeson jr.; clarinets—George Allen, Bill Nelson, John Campbell, George Lunger, Thomas Petit, Norman Wiseman, James Bossee, Teddy Cordou, Sam Van Liew, John Griff, Edward Jacobs; flute and piccolo—Edward Bailey; saxophones—Charles Gleisner, William Tassi, Kenneth Hatt, Richard Ehlster; trombones—Bill Gfroerer, Richard Grannis, Tipton Banks, Al Bernal, Charles Robbins, Ray Kirner, Vernon Olson, Bob Arnold, Ray Del Buchia, Al Rodriguez, M. General Asks Men To Enlist In Guard

Eligible men in five states of the Ninth Service Command—Washington, Oregon, Idaho, California, and Utah—were urged today by Major General David McCoach jr., Commanding General, at his command headquarters at Fort Douglas, Utah, to join the State Guards of their respective states.

General McCoach paid high tribute to "the excellent work accomplished by State Guard units in dealing with disaster relief throughout the country during the past few weeks."

He recalled the vital assistance given by various State Guard units during recent forest fires in the New England states, the destructive tornado in Pennsylvania and West Virginia and the cir-

Dynamite Missing From Powder House

Acting Police Chief William Bolger reports a comparatively quiet period at the local department since last Wednesday morning.

Among the many incidents calling for attention were several fires, auto thefts, accidents, and one robbery.

Wednesday morning, July 26, Charles E. Melancon, a sailor stationed at Tanforan, paid for a mattress and blanket to which he set fire the night before when jailed. He was turned over to the Shore Patrol.

At 4:23 p. m., July 26, Sergeant Ricco Benedetti, Officers Henry Sundermann jr. and Roland A. Petrocchi assisted Company No. 1 and Company No. 4, D. C. F. D., to extinguish a fire at 381 Winchester street where an automobile was ablaze in the basement.

Sergeant Benedetti and Officer Sundermann investigated an auto accident at Westlake avenue and Mission street, July 26, 4:50 p. m. Drivers of the vehicles were Allen L. Baughn, 259 Broad street, San Francisco, and Charles Roche, Concord, California. Sig Solbaken, 256 Sadowa avenue, San Francisco, a passenger in Baughn's car, was taken to Mission Emergency hospital by Officer Sundermann where he was treated for bad cuts on the right ear and neck.

Company No. 1 and Company No. 6, D. C. F. D., answered an alarm, from the box at Price and Mission streets, July 26 at 8:22 p. m., and put out a fire in an auto wrecking establishment at Garibaldi and Mission streets. Officers Sundermann and Edward Beecher also responded.

Police rushed Nathan Marsh, 301 Wellington avenue, to Alemany hospital for treatment, July 26, 10 p. m., when he was injured as his sedan struck the safety island on Mission street opposite 6331, damaging the island and smashing the front of his car.

Officers Benassini, Roy Beecher, and James Welsh took a sailor, Norman Lay, into custody, July 27, at 2:05 a. m. for driving a Ford convertible in circles at Vista Grande and Mission street. He was turned over to Naval authorities and the car was placed in Daly City garage.

Officers George Hopman and August Benassini put out a fire at 666 Hanover street, July 27, 4 p. m. Rags were burning in the basement.

Erwin Sheldmadine, 560 Hanover street, reported the theft of four tires and wheels and a spare tire off a 1928 Ford parked in his yard, July 27, 7:35 p. m. Size was 21 x 4.75.

Rubin Boyce, 898 Hanover street, described two sailors who had slugged and robbed him as he walked up Templeton avenue near Winchester street, July 28, 12:05 a. m., to Officers Petrocchi, Roy Beecher, Edward Beecher, and Welsh. His assailants made off with $12.

Local police turned a case over to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, last weekend, when they learned from Andrew Petrocchi, 180 Santa Barbara avenue, Mar-

Baseball Fans To See Two Games, Sunday

Baseball fans at the Marchbank park diamond, Sunday, July 30, were given variety in the resulting scores of the two games played. In the morning contest, Paul's Fountain defeated Cooks and Waiters Union players with the fat score of 13 to 9. A tight contest in the afternoon ended with Bay Meadows winning over the Coast Guard, 3 to 1.

Daly City's Juniors return to their home grounds at the park, next Sunday, to meet the Menlo junior college squad at 11 a. m. A second game is scheduled to start at 2:30 p. m., opponents for which have not been announced.

Army Comedy Now At Daly City

The Army takes over at the Daly City theatre, tonight, where M-G-M's "See Here, Private Hargrove" is playing. Only this is an Army picture that's different—it's a comedy from beginning to end. The hilarious wit of the best-selling book of the same title and the film run rampant down to the last giggle.

In the title role is young Robert Walker, who made such an auspicious debut in "Bataan" and later in "Madame Curie." Donna Reed, whose fresh and wholesome personality make her the dream girl of so many American soldiers, is the romantic lead as Hargrove's sweetheart. Keenan Wynn adds another laurel to his growing wreath with his impersonation of the lovable, but money-minded Private Mulvehill.

When Hargrove, a young reporter on the Charlotte News, is drafted he carries his natural bent for getting things wrong along with him to the Army. He makes many friends even among the sergeants who grow old and careworn trying to make a soldier of him. After meeting Donna Reed he turns over a new leaf in order to be able to spend more time with her and less time polishing garbage cans, but it doesn't last long. Finally, after selling his book and being moved over to Public Relations, he and Mulvehill are transferred back just in time to rejoin their buddies going overseas.

One of the highlights of the film is the canteen sequence where the boys dance merrily to the tune of the soldier hit song, "In My Arms," as Bob Crosby sings it. As Donna Reed's father, Robert Benchley contributes a few extra laughs, reminiscing with Hargrove on his experiences in the last war. Others in the cast are Chill Willis, Ray Collins, Donald Curtis, George Offerman jr., and "Bill" Phillips.

The film was directed by Wesley Ruggles and is well paced for laughter and romance, intermingled with a government approved picture of the infantry at work.

she will head the local War Chest drive and asked the cooperation of all members of the council as the War Chest's approval of the budget for the Daly City Girl Scout program was instrumental in getting a more ambitious schedule of activities under way for this community.

Those present were: Mrs. Jensen, Mrs. Lehigh, Mrs. John Mosman, Mrs. Delucchi, Mrs. George Windhurst, Mrs. Lane, Mrs. Hazel Marsh, Mrs. Elsie Hesselein, Mrs. D. M. Boynton, Mrs. Lucille Lemon, Mrs. Heagney, Mrs. Cecelia Hale, Mrs. Rowley.

NOW AT DALY CITY THEATRE

Robert Walker, who portrays the title role in "See Here, Private Hargrove," due to open tonight at the Daly City theatre, apparently didn't have his shoes shined this morning. For that he gets a gig. He's not too pleased about it, but what can he do when two sergeants have caught up with him? Donna Reed, Keenan Wynn and Robert Benchley are among a large list of players in the stellar supporting cast.

You Better Actually Be Taking Those Riders

A crackdown on gasoline ration holders who sign up riders and then fail to carry them regularly was seen, this week, in a new regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration from Washington which calls upon all War Price and Rationing Boards to place such persons on a probationary 30 day ration period.

If remedial measures are applied and a full quota of riders carried during the trial period a further ration will be issued for 90 days, according to George Moncharsh, District OPA Director.

All gasoline panels of War Price and Rationing Boards are being required to invoke this regulation beginning, August 1, under the provision of the new regulation. Under the plan, applicants for home-to-work mileage must establish conclusively that they are unable to get into a car sharing pool. Otherwise they must use public transportation or walk.

Experience has convinced OPA officials that fictitious ride sharing clubs have become a real problem in some areas according to Moncharsh. Under the terms of the new rule, local boards may cut the gas ration, in which ride sharing is involved, where any question exists as to the fullest measure of participation on the part of the riders who have signed up.

"Too many empty cars are driving to and from work," said Moncharsh. "Too many people are crowding the already over-loaded bus systems. The remedy is to get additional riders into empty automobile seats. It may be necessary for some drivers to change their practices, even to the extent of looking for car-sharers among strangers."

NEW BABIES

Local couples receiving the congratulations of friends and relatives upon the arrival of new babies include Mr. and Mrs. Rodney H. Huntington, 222 Vista Grande avenue, parents of a daughter born, July 23, and Mr. and Mrs. John C. McGrayne, Daly City, parents of a daughter born, July 24.

Local OPA Gives Ration Summary

(Editor's note: this column is prepared for The Record's readers by the local OPA board and is printed by this newspaper for the convenience of both the public and the board.)

APRICOTS . . . APRICOTS . . .
A bumper crop of apricots is coming into California markets. The best way to help use up the crop is to can as many as possible. They may be canned whole, in halves, made into jam alone or in combination with other fruits, or they make excellent butter. A fruit salad made with fresh apricots is a delightful summer cooler, either combined with other fruits, or served with cream cheese. A simple salad recipe is to stuff apricot halves by mixing cream cheese with a dash of paprika, a half teaspoon of salt and one tablespoon of cream. Fresh apricots also make cool and nourishing desserts when added to ice cream, sherbets or pudding, pies, or as the "downside" of an upside down cake. They make excellent between-meal snacks for the children, and are a good source of Vitamin A.

HOLIDAY TURKEY . . . This year the turkeys will be obtained by the U. S. Army Quartermaster Corps under a set-aside order announced by the WFA, to be effective July 17, 1944. Since the requirements for the armed forces are greater this year, civilian supplies will be somewhat smaller. It is expected that civilians will have available about 3 pounds of turkey per capita this year. This is only about a quarter pound less per person than last year.

Members of the armed forces on leave or furlough of three days or more must present official furlough or leave papers to the board when applying for gasoline rations. The minimum is three gallons and the maximum thirty gallons, being one gallon per day of leave or furlough.

Your local board is endeavoring to curb the irresponsible driving of teen-age drivers. It has just suspended the gasoline rations of the parent of a seventeen year old boy. The board realizes that the careless driving of these youngsters has been of great concern to the community and is making every effort to do what it can to curtail it.

CURE-ALL . . . When OPA Inspector Ernst Orberg visited Hoonah, Alaska, the local residents thought he was the Russian priest and they asked him to christen their children. "No, no, Ernst implored them to believe him. 'I'm not the priest. I represent the OPA.' There was a moment of blank silence, then an old man hopefully inquired, 'Is it good for rheumatism?'"

Copies Available

Copies of the "G. I. Bill of Rights" (Public Law 346, 78th Congress, Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944) are now available at the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.

When Being In Red Doesn't Make You Blue!

Three more red ration stamps, each worth 10 points, became good for buying rationed meats, fats and dairy products, July 30, the Office of Price Administration announces.

The red stamps to be validated are A-5, B-5 and C-5 in War Ration Book Four, and they represent the housewife's quota for the period July 30 to August 27.

At the same time OPA announced the validation of five more blue stamps, each worth 10 points, which became good for buying rationed processed foods, Tuesday, August 1.

The blue stamps validated for August will be B-5, C-5, D-5, E-5, and F-5 in War Ration Book Four.

Both the red and blue ration stamps may be used indefinitely. The Office of Price Administration also announced that the July point value charts for meats-fats and for processed foods will remain in use at least until August 13.

The 16-point value for one pound of butter, established, July 23, will continue in effect.

The extension in the use of the point value charts was planned to allow for full consideration of possible changes in the meat supply and its effect on rationing.

POWER POLITICS DANGEROUS

The Political Action committee of the CIO has launched something new on the American scene—power politics. We have always had political parties, but they have represented all groups of people. Now we see one group, numbering its members in millions and highly financed by initiation fees and monthly dues, deliberately planning to dominate elections. It has been allowed to make campaign contributions of any size, whereas industry has been stringently limited on political expenditures.

A man cannot get a job in the United States in most of the basic industries, particularly if they are producing war materials, without paying dues to a union. The implications behind the Political Action committee of the CIO are therefore terrific.

If politics can be organized on the same compulsory basis as labor has been, so that no man can get into public office without "conforming," what kind of a government are we going to have? It will take real statesmen in Congress to meet such powerful pressure, backed by millions of dollars.

American citizens must watch with jealous eye the growth of organization "power politics" which, if uncontrolled, will destroy liberty itself. Fortunately, our voting ballots are still secret, and a man can let his conscience be his guide at the polls.

HELP SAVE A LIFE

The circus fire tragedy at Hartford, Connecticut, is unusual in only one respect—it caused the death of an unusual number of people in one fire. And yet death was no more definite for each of those victims than it is for the individual who perishes in a farmhouse, or for one or two or three children who meet death in home fires almost every day.

Because some 150 people meet death from a single fire in Hartford, the tragedy is given page headlines across the nation. But when 10,000 people burn up annually by ones and twos, you never see the fact blazoned to the world in large type.

Circus or night club tragedies, and most other fires, could be prevented if each individual appointed himself a committee of one to see that every time he lit a match, smoked a cigarette or had anything to do with appliances that caused heat, it was out or properly safeguarded, when he left it.

Our 10,000-a-year fire death toll could be largely eliminated if we would all learn a lesson from the Hartford disaster and be individually careful.

SCHOOL CRISIS BECOMES REAL

Local educators years ago began warning against an impending drift away from the field of education because of better rewards offered young people in industry and trade. Today we see realistic confirmation of these predictions, as evidenced by the following newspaper item:

"OROVILLE, July 16.—(AP)—Eight rural Butte County schools cannot open this fall because of teacher shortage, County Superintendent of Schools Jay Partridge said today."

Only a few lines in a press dispatch—but they carry news freighted with ominous significance for California. The manpower lack which is closing school doors and forcing even the wealthiest districts to employ sub-standard teachers, started two years before the war, advises the State Council of Education. Its causes are plain, since our hindsight now is a little better than our foresight when the problem was in the making.

The present State allotment to elementary schools, totaling $60 per pupil per year, and used by local school boards for salaries and school operation, was fixed in 1920—just 20 years before the present sharp upturn began either in industrial wages or in the cost of living. Thirteen years later, in response to widespread evidence that an educational breakdown was threatened by low salary standards, the Legislature of 1937 fixed $1320 as the minimum wage for elementary teachers.

Only last year that minimum was increased to $1500 "for the emergency." It will revert back to $1320 on June 30, next year. It is not surprising that young men and women who might make splendid educators remain unimpressed. They can make twice that salary in industry with but a fraction of the training required of a grammar school teacher. Teacher-training enrollments have dropped off 63 per cent!

Many school districts, unable greatly to supplement the State allotment by local taxes, are strongly affected by teacher losses. It is to meet that crisis, the Council of Education announces, that it will present on the fall election ballot Proposition 9, to increase the State's share of school costs from $60 to $80 per pupil. Parents of children in school and educators alike will watch that development with keen interest.

OPA Rolls Back Prices On Sweet Potatoes

A 200 per cent rollback in the price of sweet potatoes and yams highlights this week's market basket price list which became effective Thursday, July 27, the San Francisco District Office of Price Administration has stated.

Sweet potatoes and yams which have been selling from 30c to 35c per pound are listed for the first time on the OPA price list for 12 1-2c a pound or 2 pounds for 25c in San Francisco Bay area and San Jose, and for 2 pounds for 26c in Palo Alto, and 27c in Vallejo, Monterey, and North Bay.

Another rollback—this one of 15 per cent—over going prices for Casaba, Cranshaw and Honeydew melons is an important item. Casabas are listed at 8 1-2c per pound in the Bay area, San Jose and Palo Alto and for 9c in Vallejo, Monterey and North Bay. Cranshaw melons are 10 1-2c and 11c in the same areas; and Honeydews are 9 1-2c and 10c.

Put Lumber On Rationing

The Peninsula Lumbermen's club announces that effective midnight, July 31, lumber is rationed to consumers. To secure it, they must have priority rating from the War Production Board, if more than $200 is being spent for repair or maintenance of their homes.

Farmers may spend up to $1,000 for farm requirements, but not dwellings, without a priority.

The lumber dealer is rationed to a small amount of lumber for emergency purposes, the club pointed out, and it is recommended that all persons secure priority before attempting to purchase lumber.

Lath, shingles, millwork, sash and doors are not rationed. The announcement came from J. B. McKeon, secretary of the club.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

"It will all have to be done over again in twenty years and at ten times the cost." These prophetic words were uttered by Woodrow Wilson back in 1924, out of his bitterness and sense of defeat that the world had not been ready or willing to accept his idea of universal peace.

Few men in the history of our country have been more idolized or more vindicated than Woodrow Wilson. Today, says Gerald W. Johnson in his book, "Woodrow Wilson," he haunts our minds like a bad conscience. Americans are thinking and talking of Wilson more than they are of some political leaders who consider themselves very much alive.

"Woodrow Wilson" was prepared by Mr. Johnson, with the collaboration of the editors of Look Magazine. This volume consists of a large and carefully selected assortment of photographs, portraying the President's life from his University days up to his last sad illness, along with explanatory captions and biographical text.

Graduate of Princeton and of the University of Virginia Law School; lawyer for one year in Atlanta, Georgia; Associate Professor at Bryn Mawr and seven years later the renowned President of Princeton University; Governor of the State of New Jersey; and finally President of the United States; the first president ever to step on foreign soil during his term of office when he attended the Peace Conference of Paris; heralded as a hero by frenzied crowds in England, France, Italy; the target of bitter opposition when he stuck by his idealistic belief that nations would cooperate for a permanent peace—so ran the course of events in Wilson's amazing career.

The story of Woodrow Wilson is a timely one for us to review today. How timely, is indicated by the fact that in addition to this book by Gerald Johnson, Darryl Zanuck will soon present us with a major motion picture based on his life.

Mothers worried about their children's report cards should take comfort in knowing that Woodrow Wilson, as a youth, was dull in his studies. It's amazing to learn that this future president of the United States and leader in educational thought, did not learn the alphabet until he was nine years old, nor read with any facility until he was eleven.

Two novels will make up the Book-of-the-Month Club dual selection for September—"Cluny Brown" by the English author, Margery Sharp, and "Pastoral" by Nevil Shute.

Reduce Car Quota

The new 1942 passenger automobile quota for San Francisco District of the Office of Price Administration has been sharply reduced for the month of August as compared with the month of July, Paul I. Nederman, District Rationing Executive announced today.

The August quota represents 155 vehicles as compared to the 215 new passenger automobiles rationed in the San Francisco OPA district, which includes San Mateo county, during July.

"New passenger automobile quotas will continue to be smaller and smaller as no new cars have been manufactured since February, 1942, and the national stockpile which has been so carefully rationed is now down to a normal 2 1-2 day supply," Nederman stated.

Picture Series

The California Palace of the Legion of Honor, Lincoln park, has announced its motion picture series schedule for August. The films are shown each Saturday at 2:30 p. m. without admission charge.

Here are the dates and titles for next month: August 5, "A Chump at Oxford," Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy; August 12, "If I Had a Million," Gary Cooper, George Raft; August 19, "Daniel Boone," George O'Brien, Heather Angel; August 26, "Adventures of Tom Sawyer," Tom Kelly, May Robson.

Saturdays and Sundays at 3 p. m. there are free organ recitals at the museum. Uda Waldrop is organist.

F. Cavalli Dies

Fawstino Cavalli, father of Joseph Cavalli, Colma, passed away at his home in the city of Napa, July 27. Funeral services were held, Saturday, July 29, from the W. C. Lasswell and company mortuary at 8:30 a. m. Mass was celebrated for the repose of his soul at 9 a. m. in Holy Angels church. Interment followed at Holy Cross cemetery.

Cavalli, a native of Switzerland, who was 71 at the time of his death, was the husband of Theresa Cavalli and the father of Joseph and Mary Cavalli.

Event At Park

Brownie Troops No. 8 and No. 9 held a joint session, this week, instead of their individual meetings. It was a wiener roast, this afternoon, August 3, at Marchbank park.

Girls from both Brownie groups enjoyed the pleasant outing.

POLICE

Ket Street railway employee, that someone had stolen three and a half cases of dynamite from the powder house of the railway quarry on Hillside boulevard, just off Mission street. The broken lock of the house was found on the ground. Battery and wire were taken along with the dynamite.

July 30 at 1:20 a. m. Officers Petrochi, Roy Beecher, and Welsh made a report on an auto accident at Junipero Serra boulevard and Highway No. 1. Property damage only resulted when cars driven by James C. Annis, Half Moon Bay, and Dale D. Murray, Burlingame, collided.

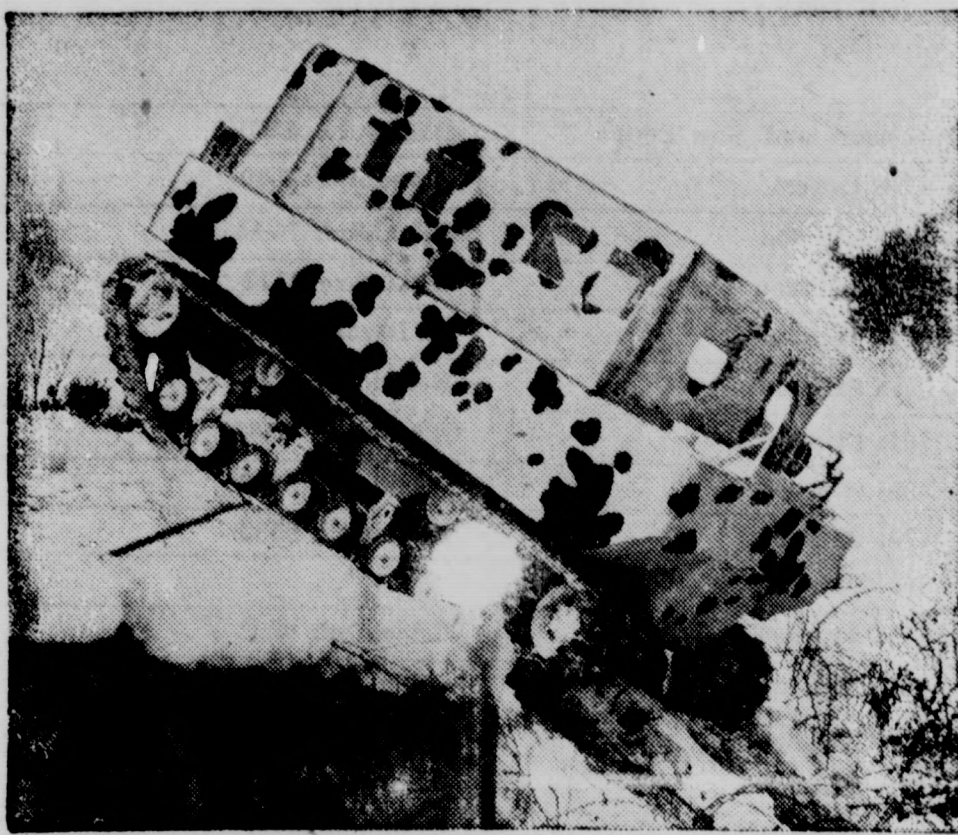

Officer Benassini and Poundmaster Archie Banfield went to the rescue of a cat which was caught in the motor of a washing machine at 570 Winchester street, July 31, at 11:30 a. m. The men turned the machine over and extricated the cat, who lost some fur in the accident as well as receiving a broken tail.

While on patrol, July 31, Sergeant Benedetti and Officer Sundermann recovered a 1940 Plymouth sedan on Mission street at Como avenue. San Francisco police had broadcast it as stolen. It was released to its rightful owner, Fred Swearingen, San Mateo.

Acting Chief Bolger took a report of a stolen car from Vic Gotelli, 6716 Mission street, August 1, 11:20 a. m. It was a 1936 Oldsmobile sedan belonging to Frank Harang, Colma, and was taken from in front of Gotelli's garage, about 11 a. m. The car was later located on Alemany boulevard and returned to Gotelli.

A grass fire which threatened to reach serious proportions was brought under control by Companies 1, 2, 4, and 6, D. C. F. D., August 1, 4:05 p. m. Scene of the blaze was the Crocker hills above Hillside boulevard and Gambetta street. Policemen responding to assist the firemen were Sergeant Benedetti, Officers Edward Beecher, Hopman, and Welsh.

WAR'S NEWEST WEAPON

Produced in secret for two years at the Studebaker automobile factory, this newly revealed Army vehicle is declared capable of negotiating terrain conditions impassable to others. Doughboys call it the "Weasel" because of its ability to strike stealthily and silently out of snowy backgrounds.

OPA Rolls Back Price Of Bananas, Today

This week's market basket price list which becomes effective today, August 3, features a 3 1-2 to 4c rollback in price of bananas, the San Francisco District Office of Price Administration states.

Bananas, which formerly had a ceiling price of from 14 1-2 to 15c a pound, will be priced at 11c a pound. The cut in the ceiling price reflects freight savings resulting from bananas being received by boat at West coast ports instead of being unloaded at New Orleans and being shipped overland.

Due to unseasonable cool weather, peas are up 2c a pound in the San Francisco Bay area, San Jose and Vallejo. The new market basket price for peas of 15 1-2c a pound is, also, a 1c increase in Monterey and 1 1-2c increase for Palo Alto.

Added to this week's list are large white onions measuring over 3 inches in diameter. They will have a ceiling price of 3 pounds for 25c.

A seasonable rise in potato ceilings amounted to 2c a 5-pound unit in all areas except North bay, and Palo Alto where the increase amounted to a penny extra on each 5 pounds.

Other minor changes were made on the list including the addition of a per pound price for blackberries to close a technical loophole and the deletion of prices on Lambert cherries which are practically off the market.

Reward For Plane

Twelfth Naval District headquarters today announced a $500 reward for information leading to the discovery of an SB2C-3 airplane, a Helldiver, (Bureau of Aeronautics Number 18740) which was lost while on a weather flight, July 7, 1944.

The plane took off from the U. S. Naval Air station, Alameda, and nothing has been heard from it since. It is believed that the plane was within an approximate 150-mile radius of Alameda.

Information about the missing plane may be mailed or telephoned to the commandant, Twelfth Naval District headquarters, Federal Office building, San Francisco, 2; telephone Market 3828, Extension 609 (Air Control Office).

George Ritter Joins Troop 141

George Ritter has joined Boy Scout Troop No. 141, according to Scoutmaster Joseph Straughan. Major summer project for the boys is the completion of their Scouting adventure film. Although they have a real donkey for the production, to say nothing of a couple of baby raccoons, they still don't have a fat boy. And they do need one! Any prospects are asked to contact Scoutmaster Straughan at ELkridge 3335, who says that it entails a good substantial part (as it should for a good, substantial boy).

Only other news from the 141 Boy Scouts, this week, is that Scoutmaster Straughan's cat has adopted the two 'coons.

SAVES THREE

Friends of Harry Johnson, 181 Los Banos avenue, this week called attention to the fact that he has recently been instrumental in saving three lives. In one incident a canoe upset with a boy and girl who could not swim, and in the other a girl who was no swimmer was pushed into the water. In both instances, Johnson, a good swimmer, pulled the endangered people to safety.

Johnson is a Sea Scout.

Issue Instructions On Infantile Paralysis

Warning that June through September is the season when infantile paralysis generally is increasing in the United States, President Basil O'Connor of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has issued instructions to all county and chapter chairmen suggesting precautions which will be helpful to residents where the dread polio is on the upswing.

The foundation's warning asks that the first thing when any symptoms of vomiting, constipation, diarrhea, severe headaches, or signs of a cold or fever, is to call the doctor, as these may be the first signs. All children and adults sick with unexplained fever should be put to bed and isolated pending medical diagnosis.

The directive from President O'Connor calls attention to the fact that early expert medical care may prevent many of the crippling deformities which follow infantile paralysis attacks.

Dan Marovich, California representative of the foundation, is now touring the state visiting chapter chairmen and medical officials, securing data on the polio situation which will be submitted to the National Foundation as part of the coordinated program to combat the disease.

A new "Champion" in invasion warfare

STUDEBAKER WEASEL

Scene on the sands of Normandy beach—June, 1944.

BUILT BY STUDEBAKER . . . POWERED BY STUDEBAKER CHAMPION ENGINE

YOU'LL hear a lot more about this agile new Allied personnel and cargo carrier as our invasion armies roll deeper into Europe. . . Born of war's needs—brainchild of the Office of Scientific Research and Development, the War Department and Studebaker engineers—the Weasel is being manufactured by Studebaker under contract with the Ordnance Department, Army Service Forces . . . It's Studebaker-built—and it's powered by the famous Studebaker Champion engine . . . Officially designated the M-29, it was soon nicknamed the Weasel. And like a weasel it is—in stealth and swiftness—in sure-footed movement on practically any kind of terrain.

sic training at Camp Roberts. His brother, Melvin Dykman, is with a fighter ground crew in China. The Record heard from him in May.

John D. Meyer, Daly City, has been promoted to private first class. He's in the Southwest Pacific.

Seaman First Class Raymond C. Vercauteren, U. S. Navy, wrote from the South Pacific, July 20, to say thanks for The Record.

FROM AN AIR BASE IN INDIA—The Air Medal has been awarded to Technical Sergeant Manley S. Bystrom, 161 Peoria street, Daly City, California, a member of Colonel Philip Cochran's Air Commando group, "for meritorious achievement in aerial flight by participating, as liaison pilot, in missions totaling more than one hundred hours over areas where exposure to enemy fire was probable and expected," it was announced at the headquarters of Major General George E. Stratemeyer, commanding general, Army Air Forces, India-Burma sector, China-Burma-India theatre.

The citation reads in part: "These flights, performed for the purpose of evacuating battle casualties, search missions and reconnaissance of enemy positions were accomplished with an exhibition of untiring energy and meticulous care while flying over Assam, India, and the Hukawng Valley in Burma in the face of unfavorable weather conditions and over extremely rugged and hazardous terrain. In the successful accomplishment of these missions, they displayed a devotion to duty and a degree of efficiency above and beyond that normally expected thereby reflecting great credit upon themselves and upon the Army Air Forces of the United States."

Lloyd Selmi, long-time Daly City resident, is now at the U. S. Naval Training center, San Diego, California. He entered the armed forces little over a month ago.

Before joining the Navy, Selmi resided with his wife at 179-A Hillcrest drive. He was foreman inspector for Federal Mogul.

Hugh Smith jr. and George Smith, well-known Daly City brothers, recently met in New Guinea. The unexpected reunion, virtually on the other side of the world, was a big thrill for both of them.

Hugh Smith jr., city councilman who entered the armed forces shortly after his term began, is a member of the Army Combat Engineers. He took his training at Fargo, North Dakota. George Smith is in the Merchant Marine.

Home Canners Advised How to Avoid Deadly Botulinus Poisoning

"THERE is vital need to can as many vegetables as possible as well as fruit; but the only safe way to can any vegetables, except tomatoes, is by correct use of the pressure cooker," advises Katharine Fisher, Director of Good Housekeeping Institute. "This method is the only one which provides the hotter-than-boiling heat that's necessary to kill botulinus germs which may be on any non-acid food you can—and that means all vegetables except tomatoes. When botulinus germs are not killed in the canning process, they thrive in sealed jars and create a powerful poison."

"This botulinus poisoning comes from bacteria that live in the soil and cling to vegetables. Although rare, this poison is particularly dangerous because it usually does not change the food's appearance, odor or taste. Analyses of soil indicate that there is a chance that botulinus spores may be found almost anywhere. Fortunately, they are harmless until they get in air-tight jars of canned food."

Use Pressure Cooker

"Correct use of the pressure cooker also protects against other types of spoilage," Miss Fisher said. "A recent national survey showed that home canners who put up non-acid vegetables by the hot water bath method reported a hundred per cent greater rate of spoilage than those who used the pressure cooker method."

"Never taste to discover spoilage," Good Housekeeping advises. "All home canned products should be examined carefully when opened and, if there is any evidence of spoilage, the food should not be used."

What to do with raisins

RAISINS can be used in so many refreshing ways! Here are a few that I've used (perhaps some will be new to you):

Make a Sandwich by mixing ½ chopped raisins and ½ honey. (If you're in the mood for a really sweet tidbit, use graham crackers or vanilla wafers.)

Add Raisins to cole slaw and shredded raw carrots, for a salad which is cool but hearty.

Your Favorite recipe for muffins or biscuits or cup cakes will be enriched if you add ½ cup of raisins to the batter. The same thing can be done for gingerbread.

"Take-Out" Lunches (carried on youngsters' summertime hikes, for example) take on new interest when you include a generous amount of raisins.

When Cooking hot cereals (yes, they're mighty good, and good for you, even on an August morning!), mix in a half-cup of raisins for each quart of cereal, as you begin to cook it.

For Dessert, try thin, rolled-up pancakes topped with a rich raisin sauce and served with lemon slices.

Ice Cream, made at home, achieves an interesting new texture and flavor if you mix in ½ cup of washed raisins just before freezing.

And Don't Forget that year-round favorite of the men: Raisin Pie a la mode!

Coffee May Be Eaten

By Frances Lee Barton

ALTHOUGH we drink our coffee once or twice a day and feel lost without it, some of us do not eat our coffee as much as we would if we but realized the number of tasty puddings and other dishes that are enhanced with that coffee flavor.

Yes! Coffee may be eaten in ice cream, in a cake, or in a delicious easy-to-prepare, economical pudding like the one described below:

Coffee Pudding

2 tablespoons ground coffee; 2 1/2 cups milk; 1 package prepared vanilla cornstarch pudding.

Add coffee to 1 1/2 cups milk and heat to scalding; strain immediately through double thickness cheesecloth. Place pudding powder in saucepan. Add remaining 1 cup milk gradually, stirring constantly. Then add coffee mixture. Cook and stir over medium flame until mixture comes to a boil and is thickened. Cool, stirring occasionally. Turn into sherbet glasses. Chill. Serve plain or with cream. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Fluffy Coffee Pudding. Fold cooked pudding into 1 stiffly beaten egg white.

Ration-Time RECIPES

Crumbly, golden brown bread crusts top these individual ramekins of Sea Food Scallop. The crumbs are an easy trick if you moisten them with melted margarine, and brown them carefully in a moderate oven.

SEA FOOD SCALLOP

2 tablespoons margarine
2 tablespoons finely chopped onion
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
Dash of paprika
Dash of pepper
1 1/4 cups milk
1 tablespoon finely chopped parsley
2 cups flaked cooked fish
2 tablespoons chopped pickles, if desired
1/2 cup fine dry crumbs
3 tablespoons margarine (melted)

Sauté onion in margarine until lightly browned. Blend in flour and seasonings. Remove from heat. Add milk gradually, mixing well. Cook over low heat, stirring until thickened. Add parsley, flaked fish, and pickle, if desired. Pour into greased ramekins or small baking dish. Cover with crumbs mixed with melted margarine. Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) about 25 minutes or until crumbs are brown. Garnish with lemon wedges sprinkled with chopped parsley. Serves 4 to 6.

Other favorite low-point recipes are found in a 32-page cookbook "Ration-Time Recipes." Free copy may be obtained from National Cotton Council, Box 18, Memphis (1) Tennessee.

Mrs. America Meets The War

Need to rent a washing machine or a vacuum cleaner? When you do, pay attention to the ceiling prices on the rental charge. The highest price you can be charged legally for renting a used household vacuum cleaner is $1.25 per month or for any fraction of a month. Maximum rates are established for all rentals of used household washing machines, with or without meters.

Here is more good news for shoppers buying fresh pears for the family. Price ceilings have been set for the first time for fresh pears sold for table use. This means a reduction of about 20 percent from last year's retail prices.

When your serviceman comes home on a leave or furlough of at least three days he'll be able to get one gallon of gasoline for every day he's away, up to a maximum of 30 days. To get his ration, the serviceman applies to the war price and rationing board having jurisdiction over the car he expects to drive. He is required to present his furlough or leave papers. No ration will be granted for passes, liberties of any duration or for leaves and furloughs of less than three days.

Don't overlook that certificate of transfer when you buy a used car, either from a dealer or a private individual. This official form must be filled out and signed by both buyer and seller. Another important point for the buyer to remember is the necessity of presenting the certificate to the local war price and rationing board before making application for the ration for the car.

Mrs. America, you can help ease housing shortages in defense rental areas by renting that spare room without being bound to continue for the duration. The eviction provisions of the rent regulation do not govern the renting of rooms not constituting an apartment to not more than two tenants in a private dwelling occupied by the landlord. Under such circumstances landlords may regain possession of the rooms whenever they wish. However, they are required to register the quarters and the rental with the local rent office.

Return Home

Barbara Jean Schramm, daughter of Mrs. Beula Berkhout, 26 Vendome avenue, returned home, Sunday, after a month's vacation spent with her grandmother, Mrs. Jean O'Rourke, Daly City librarian, in Lake county.

Mrs. Berkhout has just returned from New Orleans, Louisiana, where she spent two weeks with her husband before he returned overseas.

Thirty-Minute "Company" Cake

By Frances Lee Barton

HUBBY phoned about his dinner. Bringing home a Mr. Skinner. Home-made cake has been demanded.

Even though you had not planned it. Steady sister! Quit your wobblin'! Really this is not a problem. Mix your sugar with your flour.

This cake takes just half an hour.

Quick Cake

2 cups sifted cake flour; 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder 1/2 teaspoon salt; 1 1/4 cups sugar; 1/2 cup vegetable shortening; 1/2 cup milk; 2 eggs, unbeaten; 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Sift flour once, measure into sifter with baking powder, salt, and sugar. Have shortening at room temperature; stir to soften. Sift in dry ingredients; add 1/2 of milk, eggs, and vanilla. Stir until all flour is dampened; then beat vigorously 1 minute. Add remaining milk, blend, and beat 2 minutes longer. Turn into two deep 8-inch layer pans or 10 x 10 x 2-inch pan. Pans should be greased, lined on bottoms with waxed paper, and greased again. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) about 30 minutes for layers, about 40 minutes for 10-inch cake.

Note: Count only actual beating time. If electric mixer is used, proceed as directed above, using low speed. Scrape down bowl and beater often during mixing.

Legion Auxiliary

Daly City Unit No. 410, American Legion auxiliary, has selected the date for its installation ceremonies. They will be held, Wednesday evening, August 23, at Legion hall 474 San Diego avenue.

Arrangements for the event are not as yet complete.

Motor Vehicles Dept. Issues Statistics

A statistical report received today by the Daly City Record from the Department of Motor Vehicles shows a total of 49,538 motor vehicles of all classes were registered in San Mateo county during the first six months of 1944. This is exclusive of vehicles upon which no registration fees are paid.

Registrations for the county were classified as follows: automobiles 44,965; solid trucks 1; pneumatic trucks, 2,415; motorcycles, 2,27; solid trailers, 16; pneumatic trailers, 1,914.

Total fee paid registrations for the entire State was given at 2,870,229 vehicles, a gain of 85,154 vehicles, or 3.06 per cent over the corresponding period of 1943. Department officials credited the increase largely to the influx of war workers with vehicles previously registered in other states. Heaviest gains were noted on automobiles and pneumatic trucks.

Statewide registrations were given as follows: automobiles, 2,478,220; solid trucks, 475; pneumatic trucks, 211,225; motorcycles, 18,898; solid trailers, 1,705; pneumatic trailers, 159,706.

Departmental collections of revenues from all sources for the period totaled $28,361,336 a gain of $2,214,566, or 8.47 per cent over the corresponding period of 1943. The bulk of these funds will be apportioned to the Division of Highways and the several cities and counties of the State in compliance with apportionment statutes.

Our boys must keep on fighting—we must keep on buying WAR BONDS until victory is won. Keep on BACKING THE ATTACK.

Industry Has Until Aug. 9 To Comply

When the nationwide restaurant ceiling price became effective, July 31, District Office of Price Administration Director George Moncharch, in conjunction with Chairman P. Tremain Loud of the District Restaurant Advisory committee representing industry, asked both proprietors and patrons to assist in obtaining full compliance with the new regulation. The industry will have until August 9 within the sixteen counties of the San Francisco OPA District before the regulation becomes effective, and until August 19 to post a standard placard bearing the ceiling prices of forty basic menu items, Moncharch stated.

Questions and answers covering the new regulation for both the restaurant industry and the public have been released by Moncharch and Chairman Loud.

They follow:

1. Q. Are ceiling prices in effect in all eating and drinking places?

A. Ceiling prices are in effect in all restaurants, cafes, hotels, cafeterias, delicatessens, soda fountains, boarding houses, bars, catering businesses and other public eating and drinking establishments.

2. Q. Do all establishments have the same ceiling prices?

A. No. The prices for each establishment are set on the basis of what that particular establishment charged during the "base price period" of April 4-10, 1943. In San Francisco Bay Area ceiling prices for 19 a la carte items are established by special order by class of restaurant.

3. Q. Do all meals have ceiling prices on them?

A. Yes. In each establishment the price of each meal is set at the highest price which was charged for the same meal during the April 4-10, 1943 period.

4. Q. Do a la carte items have ceiling prices on them?

A. Yes. Their prices are the same as the highest prices charged by the particular establishment during the April 4-10, 1943 period.

5. Q. How can I tell what restaurant ceiling prices are?

A. Beginning August 16, 1944, each establishment will display a large poster showing the ceiling prices of 40 commonly sold meals and separate food items. The base period prices for all other meals and food items are filed by each establishment at their local War Price and Rationing Board and will be made available to you by the restaurant upon request.

6. Q. Can Sunday meals be sold at higher prices than the weekly ceiling prices?

A. If, during its base period, an establishment charged more for its Sunday meals than for weekday meals, it may continue charging those higher prices on Sunday, but its ceiling price poster must list the weekday prices of 40 commonly sold meals and food items.

7. Q. Can holiday meals be higher than the regular ceiling prices of meals?

A. Establishments which charged different prices for holiday meals may go on doing so if their special holiday prices are not more than 15 per cent higher than their Sunday April 4, 1943 prices. Special New Year's Eve prices may not be higher than those charged on New Year's Eve, 1942.

8. Q. Do alcoholic beverages have ceiling prices?

A. Yes. Their prices in each establishment are the same as those legally charged during the base period April 4-10, 1943 plus any taxes that can legally be passed on to consumers.

9. Q. What is the ceiling price of hot coffee?

A. The ceiling price is 5 cents per cup or pot in all establishments except those which charged more during the week of October 4-10, 1942, and have so indicated in writing to their local War Price and Rationing Board.

Stores Need No Longer Sort Sugar Stamps

Retail food stores no longer will have to sort sugar ration stamps by number before posting them on gummed sheets for deposit in ration banking accounts or for transfer to wholesale suppliers, according to the Office of Price Administration.

Beginning July 31, valid sugar stamps received by retailers from consumers in the course of trade could be pasted on the same sheet for ration banking account deposit or payment to a sugar wholesaler.

Previously sugar stamps 30, 31, 32 and 40 had to be pasted on separate sheets by the retailer.

Telephone Co. Receives Award

A Certificate of Appreciation for loyal and patriotic service was presented to the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, August 1, by Colonel S. W. Stanley, signal officer of the Ninth Service Command at ceremonies in the executive offices of the company at 140 New Montgomery street, San Francisco. Vice-President George H. Jess accepted the certificate on behalf of all company personnel.

The certificate states that the chief signal officer, Major General H. C. Ingles, extends his appreciation to the company "For loyal and patriotic services rendered the Signal Corps of the Army of the United States in the accomplishment of its vital mission during a period of national emergency."

"This acknowledgment of your distinguished contribution in furtherance of a future world at peace will be inscribed forever in the annals of the Signal Corps."

Colonel Stanley praised the company for its "excellent cooperation and patriotic service to our country in the present world-wide conflict."

In responding Jess said, in part: "We are deeply grateful for your thoughtful and generous recognition of the effective work of our personnel. We assure you that we shall continue to do our full duty, expressed in a performance which, in every respect, will accord with the highest traditions of the service."

SELL HOTEL

Five million dollars, the largest price ever paid for any single real estate holding in San Francisco, is the sum an eastern syndicate paid for one of San Francisco's largest hotels, the Hotel St. Francis. The sale made no appreciable difference in the service of the 1000-room downtown hotel, according to its manager and executive vice-president, Dan E. London, who was retained, with all the staff, by the new owners.

Two Plead Not Guilty At Court

At Friday's city court session, Judge William J. Sweeney fined Pat Bailey, 182 Flournoy street, $20 for violation of City Ordinance No. 209 and fleeing the officer who arrested him.

Barbara Agee, San Francisco, and Charles Thurston, 184 Santa Cruz avenue, pled not guilty to a charge of disturbing the peace. They were represented by counsel who waived the reading of the complaint and asked that the case be dismissed. When the request was not granted, the attorney said his clients would appeal to a higher court.

M. Killhofer, 30 Theta avenue, paid a $2 fine for overnight parking; John Lundt, 37 Peoria street, $1, overnight parking; William J. Beer, 2610 Thirty-eighth avenue, San Francisco, $1, arterial stop; Annible Efestione, 1270 Indiana street, San Francisco, $2.50, signal; Mrs. Wilma Pulley, 98 San Joaquin avenue, $5, improper parking; Salvadore Follari, 438 Arch street, San Francisco, $1.50, arterial stop; Marion Johnson, 1263 Thirty-fourth avenue, San Francisco, $1.50, arterial stop; Ernest Meezit, 60 Mirabel avenue, San Francisco, $2.50, signal; Harold Smith, 1160 Pine street, San Francisco, $1.50, arterial stop; Edward Wachter, 862 Twenty-eighth avenue, San Francisco, $1.50, arterial stop.

LUSTROUS cotton taffeta, designed with the meticulous tail of fine tailoring, takes CBS actress Anne ("Easy Aces") Teeman from dawn to dusk with perfect propriety. Bright buttons trim the peplum blouse closing, and mandarin slits give walking ease and refreshing novelty to the slender, fitted skirt. Miss Teeman selected a rich, cool green combination which is equally effective in coal black and cool white. (From Duchess Royal, New York.)

LUXURIOUS colors and embroidery foretell a scintillating story of autumn fashions. Decorative bead and paillette patterns adorn the molded, heaven blue two-piece jersey which CBS harpist Elaine ("Mildred Bailey and Co.") Vito selected from the collection of Mollie Parnis originals. Her signal blue, suede-finish coif-bonnet introduces the new draped design of Sally Victor. The rich color contrast of the ensemble is coordinated with gold thread, felt and stone applique on the curved head line.

WPB Interprets Christmas Rule

In response to questions from retailers, the Wholesale and Retail Trades division of the War Production Board today issued an interpretation of the status of Christmas gift wrapping under WPB's Declaration of Policy on wrapping and packaging materials.

Merchants are asked to save paper by eliminating all unnecessary wrapping, for gifts as well as ordinary packages. So that any remaining inventories of gift wrappings will not be wasted, stores may use them sparingly. But, for gifts as for other packages, the following conservation measures should be observed:

1. Avoid double wrapping, such as paper over a box.
2. Avoid inner stuffing or other inner wrapping unless necessary for the protection of the item packed.
3. Avoid decorative wrapping effects if they involve the use of any extra paper.
4. Instruct salespeople to tell customers of the wartime necessity for the simplest gift wrappings.

Tain't So!

No, it is not true that if you rent that spare room or two in your private home to ease the housing shortage you must continue to rent out the space for the duration.

This was the assurance today of Henry A. Cross, district rent executive of OPA in laying at rest an erroneous report that has widespread circulation in the Bay area.

The report has spread that once a room or two in a private home is rented, those rooms must continue to be available to tenants for the duration of the war. This is not true, Cross said. The report is believed to be responsible for withholding a considerable block of housing space that otherwise would be available to tenants.

It is true that such rentals must be registered with OPA, Cross said, but this is a simple procedure.

SMALL TALK

by M. F. "POP" SMALL
United Press Staff Correspondent

SACRAMENTO, July—(UP)—The largest printing plant west of the Mississippi river is operated by the state of California.

George H. Moore, State Printer since January, 1935, formerly published the Lodi "Times," now in charge of his son Clifton Moore.

The late Friend Richardson was one of the most colorful men to have held the position of state printer, and he took his individuality into the "corner office" when later he became Governor.

Richardson was appointed in 1911 by Governor Hiram W. Johnson, and held the office until 1915.

When he took over the department, he found it "badly demoralized." At least that's what he said in his first report to Governor Johnson, and his analysis seems to have been borne out by the personal financial situation of 80 per cent of the personnel.

That proportion, Richardson learned, was in the clutches of a Sacramento money shark who was charging 2 to 3 per cent per month for personal loans. Richardson forthwith installed an "employees' credit system," which still functions and was the foundation on which the State Employees Credit Union was built.

Friend Richardson was quite a fellow for getting at the root of things anyhow. Several years ago when Ellis Patterson seemed certain of election as lieutenant-governor, and Richardson and a lot of other "Black Republicans" foresaw this as a catastrophe, Friend delivered himself of his opinion of lieutenant-governors generally.

"I don't like 'em," he said. "A lieutenant-governor is like a buzzard, circling overhead and waiting for the chance to pounce the minute the governor dies. All that stands between a lieutenant-governor and his chance to move up is another man's heart beat."

Well, this hasn't anything to do with the state printing office, except that when the department is talked about, the name of Friend Richardson is bound to be recalled.

George Moore will probably never be described as "colorful," but he's credited with giving efficient, businesslike management to this long established agency.

He and his assistant, Ralph Titus, have 325 persons under them, including 150 women. The state printing office has 70 stars on its service flag. The men who have gone to war are on military leave, and all of them want to take up their jobs where they left them when the war is over. In George Moore's words, "it is considered an honor by a printer to be employed in the State Printing Office."

The office was created by the legislature of 1875 and began operating on December 1 of that year.

In 1885 it was authorized to print the textbooks used by all elementary schools in the state, and in 1912 the provision that the schools should use such textbooks was made mandatory. They are today permitted to buy from the outside only "supplementary" texts.

Textbook production amounts to 40 per cent of the work of the state printing office.

But you couldn't get it to print any kind of book while legislature is in session. At those periods, the printing office is so busy with legislative printing alone that a second shift of printers must be employed.

Every morning a Senate Journal and Assembly Journal, covering the previous day's proceedings, and printed copies of every bill and resolution introduced during that day, are ready for the lawmakers and others interested.

All departments of the state government are required to have their printing done by the printing office, and must provide in their budgets for "cash" payment of the service. Contrary to popular belief, "it is not just a book-keeping transaction," Moore states.

The printing office is equipped with 36 presses, 19 linotypes and a long list of auxiliary machines. Both the offset and letterpress processes are used in the pressroom. Paper consumption is measured in carloads, ink in barrels.

The department occupies its

CREATING SOCIAL BUTTERFLIES from crepe paper is the trick with which CBS starlet Patricia ("Let's Pretend") Ryan has economically transformed a basic dress into an interesting costume. All she used for the calot and belt was one package of Dennison's crepe paper, a twister and steel crochet hook No. 2 or 3. Patricia gives her method of procedure: cut the paper across the grain in half-inch strips, draw through the twister, then crochet into sturdy accessories.
